DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the amendment filed 05/13/2004, all necessary changes to the claims have been entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 5/13/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's core argument is that none of the references alone or in combination teaches the "side clamp leg protuberance" is configured to separate from the "side clamp leg". The examiner respectfully disagrees. Miller teaches a first clamp leg (see Figure 1) and a leg protuberance (220) (Figure 2). Since Miller's needle guide is configured to be detached from the transceiver/bracket (112), it is inherent that the "side clamp leg protuberance" would be configured to separate from the "side clamp leg".
3. Applicant failed to argue about the "Double Patenting Rejection". However, the amended claims (1-18) remedy the statutory type (35 USC 101) double patenting rejection. But, these claims are still subject to non statutory type double patenting rejection (please see the rejection below) and claims 19-21 are still rejected under 35 USC 101 (please the rejection below).

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3737

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-18 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of copending Application No. 10/065,442. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it is inherent that the lock of the '442 application would attach the needle guide to the transceiver bracket.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

6. Claims 19-21 of this application conflict with claims 19-21 of Application No. 10/065,442. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

7. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

Art Unit: 3737

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

8. Claims 19-21 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 19-21 of copending Application No. 10/065,442. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

10. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller et al. (US 5,758,650 of record). For detailed explanation please see prior office action pages 4-5. The added limitation does not overcome the rejection because it is inherent that the lock would attach the needle guide to the transceiver bracket.

11. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pruter (US 6,296,614 of record). For detailed explanation please see prior office action page 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

12. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3737

13. Claims 7-19 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McGahan (US 6,095,981 of record). For detailed explanation please see prior office action pages 7-9.

Conclusion

14. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
